

Join us in beautiful historic downtown Lawrence as we celebrate the 40th anniversary of the National Historic Preservation Act. We will have sessions on economics in preservation, historic tax credits, historic window repair, and more! Learn about the history of beer brewing in Kansas with a taste testing! Attend a reception at renovated Liberty Hall, the historic Eldridge Hotel, and tour historic sites in Douglas County.

The statewide historic preservation conference is funded this year by the City of Lawrence and the Cultural Resources Division of the Kansas State Historical Society with pass-through funds from the National Park Service.

Lawrence boasts one of the most beautiful downtowns in the country. The National Trust for Historic Preservation ranked Lawrence among its "Dozen Most Distinctive Destinations," touting it as one of the best-preserved and unique communities in America.
