

Waste Reduction and Recycling Division staff conduct a busy public outreach at the Lied Center during their Free Family Concert and Fair August 16, 2006.

Michelle Crank, WRR Specialist gladly obliges a young recycling enthusiast in the application of a temporary tattoo.

Environmental Education should start young and be fun!

