*Re: May 18, 2009 Planning Commission Meeting
Agenda Item 4, CPA-3-2-09 (the "Text Amendment")
Agenda Item 5, Z-11-19-08 (the "Rezoning Request")*

Dear Mr. Finkeldei:

I am writing on behalf of Rockwall Farms, L.C. (the "Applicant"), in connection with the above-referenced land use matters, which will allow for the construction of a rural conference center (the "Project"). During the past several months, the Applicant and Planning Staff have discussed several issues related to the Project, including many of the same issues identified by the League of Women Voters (the "LWV") in their letter addressed to the Planning Commission, and dated April 19, 2009. Although we appreciate and share many of the LWV's same concerns, the LWV's letter does contain a couple of factual misstatements regarding the Project, which need to be corrected.

CUP not an option. The LWV states that the Project, as proposed, may proceed with a Conditional Use Permit ("CUP"). This is not correct. The option of a CUP has been considered and discussed at length between the Applicant and the Planning Staff, but is not a viable option. First, long-term financing for a multi-million dollar real estate development, such as the Project, requires permanent zoning, not a CUP. Second, a CUP will not allow the Applicant the ability to obtain a liquor license to serve alcohol on the subject property. A liquor license is a prerequisite to the Applicant's proposed uses, including dining, banquet and reception facilities on the subject property.

Wrong property identified. The LWV incorrectly states that the Project "is strategically located for the potential to become a major commercial hub in the County because of its proximity to the K-10/Turnpike interchange." This is not correct. The LWV identified the wrong parcel of property. The actual Project is located 1.5 miles to the west, and a quarter mile north of the LWV's location. Moreover, the Project is not likely to become a "major commercial hub" because the site is not even visible from the Farmer's Turnpike. The proposed improvements will be set back more than a quarter mile from the Farmer's Turnpike—not an ideal location for a “commercial hub.” To the contrary, the site was selected because of its seclusion.

Conditional zoning not allowed. The Project has very specific proposed uses, and the LWV believes a specific land use approval should be used to permit those uses. Conceptually we agree, and have had several discussions with the Planning Staff about this very issue. The Applicant has offered to restrict the proposed uses in connection with the Rezoning Request, and the Planning Staff would accept such restrictions, if permitted to do so. However, the LWV correctly notes that Douglas County does not presently allow “conditional zoning” to impose additional use limitations within a zoning category.

Workable solution. The Applicant has agreed to make the rezoning contingent upon the approval of a site plan, which includes a site buffer. Additionally, if the proposed Text Amendment is approved, then Horizon 2020 will allow the proposed project in the rural area, thereby evoking a recommendation for approval from Planning Staff. To address concerns of future land use, the Text Amendment imposes criteria for rural recreation and tourism facilities. The configuration and isolated location of the Project are further assurances against more intense commercial development in the future. These actions and facts represent the best available compromise between the concerns of Planning Staff and the objectives of the Applicant. In effect, the Applicant is agreeing to condition the “approval” of the Project, rather than condition the “zoning” itself.

The Applicant and the Planning Staff have cooperated to present the Planning Commission with a solution both parties can support. The Applicant has made a concerted effort to provide the public with assurances that the proposed use on the subject property will integrate with and preserve the surrounding rural environment, and has made all reasonable efforts to address concerns of the Planning Staff, the Lecompton Planning Commission, and the neighboring landowners. We believe the Text Amendment and the Rezoning Request independently merit the consideration and approval of the Planning Commission.

Respectfully,

Matthew S. Gough

RE: MISC. ITEM #2: COMPREHENSIVE PLAN AMENDMENT INITIATION REQUEST,
To Change Horizon 2020, Chapter 6, to Allow Conference, Recreation Tourism Facilities as a Commercial Use in the Unincorporated County.

Dear Chairman Finkeldei and Planning Commissioners:

We are writing this letter in opposition to changing Horizon 2020, Chapter 6, Commercial Land Use, to allow for randomly-located conference, recreation, or tourism facilities to be included in this commercial land use chapter. This request has arisen because of the need to allow in the County a more general distribution of such facilities. However, we object to including this use in the Commercial Land Use Chapter for the following reasons, and ask that you seek a different method to accommodate this use in our comprehensive plan.

1. Allowing this use in Chapter 6 would permit all such requests to be considered public commercial areas, eligible for commercial zoning under one of the existing county business districts. We have included copies of the current Douglas County Zoning Regulations for commercial zoning, Districts B-1, B-3 and B-2, to give you an idea of the wide variety and intensity of commercial uses available to an applicant in these districts. This is especially true for B-2 zoning, the requested commercial district for Rockwall Farms. Because there is no method available to the County to limit these permitted uses to only one or a few uses, once the zoning is in place, the ultimate use of this land would always be in question.
2. The nature of these uses requires a considerable amount of acreage. For the entire amount to be zoned for one of the County commercial districts, as in the case of Rockwall Farms, its size of 59 acres would be equivalent to a shopping center when zoned to any of the County commercial districts. The Rockwall Farms is strategically located for the potential to become a major commercial hub in the County because of its proximity to the K-10/Turnpike interchange, even though this is not the applicants' expressed intention.
3. Although conference, recreation and tourism uses would probably include dining facilities and residential accommodations, the assumption of the Rockwall Farms proposal is that the clientele would not be the random, general public, but, instead, organized groups with pre-arranged programs planned and booked in advance; at least this is the impression that has been presented by the applicants. Any adjunct commercial uses would be designed for the use of the clientele, would be small, and possibly not even open to the public. Because of the specific nature of the application, it would seem to us that such a use would not require commercial zoning at all.

Such uses, we believe, could be better accommodated with a Conditional Use Permit. The objection by the applicants that a CUP would be too uncertain because of the time limits could be overcome by eliminating the time limits and the other specific restrictions that the applicants feel jeopardize the attractiveness of the project to investors.

We ask the Planning Commission to be aware of the possible consequences of opening up the County to the random distribution, scattered throughout the unincorporated area, of large tracts of commercially-zoned land that could become nuclei of general business uses. For these reasons, we again urge you not to include “conference, recreation, and tourism” uses in Chapter 6. We suggest that you treat this as a special use, and provide a specifically tailored conditional use permit category for such uses. It would be wise to make note of this treatment in the Horizon 2020, Growth Management Chapter 4, as well.

Thank you for carefully considering this issue.

Sincerely yours,

Carrie Lindsey

RE: ITEM NO. 4: CPA-3-2-09; AMENDMENT TO HORIZON 2020, CHAPTERS 4 & 6 (DDW)
ITEM NO. 5: A TO B-2; 58.99 ACRES; N 1800 RD & E 700 RD (MKM)

Dear Chairman Finkeldei and Planning Commissioners:

You have received several communications from us on this issue and therefore know that we support the type of use proposed by Rockwall Farms but not the rezoning to the County B-2 that the developers have requested. We take this position because of the open-ended list of possible uses that this property could become in the future and the inability of the County to legally restrict the use under this B-2 District. The restrictions that you have recommended (i.e., the platting and buffering) would not prevent the property from becoming a general commercial use. Platted property can be replatted. Buffers as a function of the platting can be rescinded, unless that land is given to the County. The suggestion for a modified Conditional Use Permit is unacceptable to the developers.

We have another suggestion that we hope you will seriously consider. Because Horizon 2020 is undergoing a possible change to allow any number of these "conference, recreation, or tourism facilities that benefit from or integrate with the rural setting," it seems justifiable to create a special zoning district for this use. These proposed and necessary conditions are not written into any zoning district at this time and would not be binding under the existing conventional County zoning districts. There is no reason why a new County Zoning District could not be initiated that would satisfy the needs of this use, but at the same time provide the necessary predictability that such a County business use should dictate. We believe that in order to avoid the unexpected consequences of unintentional outcomes that the all-encompassing B-2 District could cause, a possible solution would be to create a new special district for the use "conference, recreation, or tourism facilities that benefit from or integrate with the rural setting." Such a district could be written so as to limit the uses, add requirements specific to the facilities, and therefore avoid the development of more intensive commercial sites/and or shopping centers located throughout the County. We also suggest that you word the Horizon 2020 Chapter 6, Commercial Land Use, so that this type of use would be limited to this special district in the County.

Also, we would like to apologize for mis-locating the Rockwall Farms site on the map that was attached to our letter. We had inserted the letter that was presented in the PC Staff Report of January 28, 2009 in the Miscellaneous Item #1. We continue to view the correct location, however, as strategically located and large enough to potentially become an intensive commercial center if granted B-2 County Zoning because of its relatively close proximity to the K-10/I-70 Interchange.

Again, we ask that you seriously consider our suggestion of creating a new, special district for the specific use requested by the developers of Rockwall Farms and to reference such district in Chapter 6, Horizon 2020. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Milton Scott
