

Spring Carnival

What: A nationwide tour that combines the experience of a live concert with spirited carnival fun. We will bring the event to select college markets across the US to transform open space into a magnetic environment. This is a free, all ages event.

When: April 19, 2010 (Monday)

Hours of Operation: A one-day event that sets up in the morning and breaks down the same night. Exact hours are determined by the particular event, all local ordinances, sound permits, etc. Sample schedule is as follows:

9am - 6pm	Set-up
6:00pm	Open
7:45pm - 8:15pm	Opening Act
8:45pm - 9:30pm	Headliner
10:00pm	Event Closes
12:00 am	Depart

Expected Attendance: 1,000 – 1,500 total

About BFG: BFG Communications, Superfly Promotions (producers of Bonnaroo) and Turner Broadcasting [adult swim] are an experienced promotional agency, executing over 5,000 events nationwide every year. Event planning, set up, and execution run seamlessly, as BFG knows the legalities and ensures that all program activations abide laws and safety codes. BFG works with safety officials and law enforcement officials to secure any necessary permits and other legal/safety requirements. For more information on BFG go to www.bfgcom.com

What We are Asking: The business owners permission for temporary street closure of 8th street between Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Normal foot traffic to business will not be disrupted. BFG encourages all locals business to be part of our event. By signing below, you are stating you are granting permission for the requested street closure.
