

Average size of patching needed per driving lane every 100'.

Concrete and asphalt pothole patches are removed then backfilled with aggregate subgrade.

New concrete is tied into existing pavement.

Traffic is merged to one lane and left turns are prohibited in work areas.