21 year Birthday Party

Saturday August 14, 2010

7pm- Midnight

This is a request for permission to temporarily close a portion of 8th Street, and allow an extended alcohol service area.

Location:

At the west part of the intersection between New Hampshire and Massachusetts Streets on 8th Street in Downtown Lawrence. (See Map) We will need Road closed off 1 pm that day.

We will be celebrating with a street concert. This concert will be a celebration of memories, music and float dances from the past many years. The band will be Mark Valentine and the Number 1's. The music concept will be the past 20 years top #1 pop songs. We will have special appearances from former bartenders and patrons from the past two decades.

This concert will be family friendly and open to everyone.

No admission

Downtown businesses will have the opportunity to sell their products if so desired on the sidewalk and closed area.

Alcohol will only be available in a "beer garden area" located on the map.

We are requesting a right of way for the use of the road.

And ability to extend our current alcohol service area designated on map, with permission from ABC to extend our service area.

The Sandbar will provide:

-An enclosed fenced area for alcohol consumption, this area will be staffed to control admittance of only 21 and older patrons. Plastic cups only.

-Trash reciprocals in 4 corners of concert area.

-6 Staff members to observe and monitor area circling concert are to provide assistance for public safety issues.

-We will clean up all trash and any items left from concert and will have area open back up by 1 am on Sunday morning the 15th.

We are excited about our 21 years in downtown Lawrence. It is our pleasure to produce A wonderful event for the community filled with memories and happy music from the last two decades.
