The outreach team has been busy this quarter, providing services to nearly 100 more people than last quarter. We have had several success stories getting people housed including one woman with major medical and mental health problems who was difficult to house as she wanted to keep her dogs. We were able to find a landlord willing to accommodate her.

We have also been connecting with and referring people to the Kim Wilson Housing Authority in Wyandotte County. This has resulted in 6 families and 1 individual either maintaining or obtaining stable housing.

This quarter we started sending one outreach worker go the jail once a week to meet with inmates who will be homeless upon release to begin engaging in reentry plans. Requests for financial assistance have skyrocketed. Other community agencies have run out of funding, including the housing authority's HPRP program. These agencies are referring people here for assistance, forcing us to reorganize how we provide financial assistance to homeless individuals.
