

Tom Hogan (left), City of Lawrence WRR Specialist, and Jim Rudeen, Chief of Waste Assistance, Compliance and Enforcement Section with Kansas Department of Health and Environment.

2011 WORKS Conference • March 23, 2011

Tom Hogan, City of Lawrence Waste Reduction and Recycling Specialist, was a speaker at the 2011 Kansas Department of Health and Environment WORKS conference in Wichita. His presentation highlighted the City of Lawrence / Douglas County Household Hazardous Waste and Small Quantity Generator Programs including the history and operations of each program as well as ongoing outreach and education efforts.

City of Lawrence
PUBLIC WORKS
WASTE REDUCTION & RECYCLING