

HASKELL STUDENTS VOLUNTEER AT EAGLE BEND GOLF COURSE AND LEARNING CENTER

Members of the Haskell Indian Nations University golf team volunteered to clean and detail the carts used by patrons at Eagle Bend Golf Course and Learning Center the last week of April.

Their service project saved Eagle Bend in the time and labor costs associated with cleaning the carts. The seven members of the team volunteered a combined total of 28 hours, saving more than $200 in labor costs.

