

Event Type	Services Provided, and Costs/Fees Assessed, by Department
	Police	Fire Medical	Other Departments
KU sports events (mainly football and basketball)	Police department provides traffic control for football and basketball games, and occasional other sports; no charge to university.	Standby medical for football, basketball, occasional other sports. Charge total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%, to the university.	No other support typically necessary.
KU graduation	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical for football, basketball, occasional other sports. Charge total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%, to the university.	No other support typically necessary.
KU Relays	Police Department may provide foot patrol at downtown portions of event. No charge to event organizers.	Standby medical services provided and charged to organizers (total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%)	In 2011, Public Works provided significant support for the downtown portions of this event, providing barricades for street closures as well as set up and take down of shot put and long jump areas.
March Madness celebrations downtown	Police resources needed depends on how deep in tournament the team goes, can require up to all available officers plus mutual aid from other cities and law enforcement agencies such as Highway Patrol. Costs to the Police Department include housing and feeding some officers from outside Lawrence. The city covers all of these costs.	Standby medical units on hand when large celebrations are expected (Final Four). No charge.	Public Works may provide barricades for street closures and additional dumpsters, as well as frequent emptying of dumpsters. Parks and Recreation provides additional trash barrels, extensive clean up of trash and damage to downtown plantings.
Haskell football games	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical for football, basketball, occasional other sports. Charge total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%, to the university.	No other support typically necessary.
Haskell Pow Wow	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Haskell graduation	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Haskell Indian Arts Fair	Police Department occasionally provides foot patrol. No charge to university.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Baker University sports events	Event is outside city. No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical for some sports events. Charge total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%, to the university.	No other support typically necessary.
High School sports events	Police department provides Student Resource Officers (SROs) to be present at events (usually 4-6 SROs at football games, 2 SROs at basketball games). Traffic control provided at football and basketball games and occasional other games including swimming events. School district pays for off-duty security.	Fire stations close enough that no standby medical typically needed for LHS and FSHS. Standby medical for Baldwin HS charged at total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%,	No other support typically necessary.

Event Type	Services Provided, and Costs/Fees Assessed, by Department
	Police	Fire Medical	Other Departments
High School social events	Police Department provides SROs to staff events such as prom, homecoming, other dances. These do not typically require traffic control. Homecoming parade requires traffic control. School district pays for off-duty security.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
High school graduation	Police Department provides SROs to staff graduation ceremony. No traffic control typically needed. School district pays for off-duty security.	Standby medical for LHS and FSHS. Charge $13 per 15 minutes to school district for one unit (2 people plus medic unit).	No other support typically necessary.
Project Graduation	Police Department provides SROs and a supervisor, as well as traffic control as the event closes. Organizers are charged for off-duty security.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Junior High/Middle School sports events	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Junior High/Middle School social events	No Police Department support is typically necessary.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
5Ks, 10Ks, half marathons, bike races	Police Department provides review of event route, traffic control, occasionally provides foot or bike patrol for large events downtown. No charge to event organizers.	Standby medical. Non-profit events that ask the City Commission for donation of city services are not charged. Other events are charged total personnel costs including benefits, plus 10%.	Public Works often provides barricades to close streets, street sweeping, dumpsters, and sometimes pot hole repairs and other street repairs along the routes. Parks and Rec may provide trash barrels. There will be a charge for the dumpster rental, although the bigger events that require dumpsters usually ask the City Commission to donate all city services in support of the event.
Parades	Police Department provides traffic control and foot/bike patrol (crowd management). No charge to event organizers.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	Parks and Recreation Department may provide additional trash barrels and downtown cleanup. No charge to event organizers.
Protests, marches, rallies	Police Department provides traffic control and crowd management when necessary. No charge to event organizers.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.
Funeral escorts	Police Department provides 1-4 officers (usually 1-2) depending on size and destination of group; provides 2-3 escorts per week. No charge to funeral home or family of deceased.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	No other support typically necessary.

Event Type	Services Provided, and Costs/Fees Assessed, by Department
	Police	Fire Medical	Other Departments
Oversize vehicle escorts	Police Department sometimes provides escorts for oversize vehicles either passing through Lawrence on state highways, or that must travel local streets to a Lawrence destination. No charge to trucking company.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	Public Works may review destinations and recommend routes. If an oversize vehicle does not have a Lawrence destination and cannot stay on state highways (because of a low bridge or load limited bridge) the vehicle is told to find another route that does not pass through Lawrence. There is no charge for these reviews.
Structure moves	Police Department sometimes provides escorts for house or other structure moves. Moving company must apply and pay for a permit from the City Clerk's Office, but the Police Department does not have a separate charge.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	Public Works may review destinations and recommend routes; no charge to mover. Other permits for utility hookups, building permits may be necessary and have associated charges.
4th of July	Police Department provides foot patrol (8-9 officers) at Watson Park, Constant Park, and Burcham Park. No charge to organizers.	Standby medical unit(s) provided and fire protection at shoot location with 2 overtime members. No charge.	Park must be reserved and Special Use Permit and sometimes Alcohol Permit are obtained from the Parks and Recreation Department. There are charges for these permits.
County Fairgrounds events	Police Department provides patrol at County Fair and Demolition Derby; no charge to County (provided as reciprocal service to Sheriff's Department).	Standby medical during entire week. No charge.	No other support typically necessary.
Events in South Park	Police Department provides foot patrol at some larger events such as Art in the Park, Americana Music Festival, Kansas State Fiddling and Picking Festival, etc. No charge to organizers.	Fire Marshall typically reviews any event that will feature tents or other structures to make sure adequate fire protection is in place; sometimes has an inspector check on the actual set up. Typically no charge to organizers.	Park must be reserved and Special Use Permit and sometimes Alcohol Permit are obtained from the Parks and Recreation Department. There are charges for these permits. Temporary permits for the sale of alcohol may be required from the City Clerk's Office and do have an associated fee.
Downtown street parties/concerts/closures	Police Department provides traffic control and foot/bike patrol. For "for profit" activities (movie/commerical filming, Adult Swim College Carnival, etc.) the event organizers generally pay for off-duty officers. Non-profit events (Get Downtown, Bert Nash Dash and Bash, Kansas Half Marathon) generally are not charged for police services.	Fire Marshall typically reviews any event that will feature tents or other structures to make sure adequate fire protection is in place; sometimes has an inspector check on the actual set up. Typically no charge to organizers. Standby medical services provided if requested by organizers. Non-profit events that ask the City Commission for donation of city services are not charged. Other events are charged total personnel costs including benefits, plus 10%.	Public Works often provides barricades to close streets, street sweeping, and sometimes extensive set up (e.g. Kansas Relays shot put site). Parks and Rec often provides trash barrels. There are typically no charges for these services.
Neighborhood block parties	No Police Department support is typically necessary	Fire Marshall typically reviews any event that will feature tents or other structures in the street to make sure adequate fire access is maintained; sometimes has an inspector check on the actual set up. Typically no charge to the organizers.	Public Works usually provides barricades to close the street. No charge to organizers.

Event Type	Services Provided, and Costs/Fees Assessed, by Department
	Police	Fire Medical	Other Departments
Downtown Lawrence Sidewalk Sale	Police Department provides foot patrol. Event also disrupts normal operations of parking control because access to meters is difficult due to crowds. No charge to event organizers.	No Fire Medical Department support is typically necessary.	Parks and Recreation Department provides approximately 15 extra trash barrels and empties them 3 times (normally empty downtown barrels once per day). No charge to event organizers.
Lawrence Airport Open House	No Police Department support is typically necessary	Standby medical provided. No charge (city event).	Public Works Department sponsors this event. No other support is typically necessary.
Maple Leaf Festival	Event is outside city. No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical provided. No charge to Baldwin City.	No other support typically necessary.
Eudora Fest	Event is outside city. No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical provided. Charged to City of Eudora.	No other support typically necessary.
Jet Ski Races (Clinton Lake)	Event is outside city. No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical services provided and charged to organizers (total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%)	No other support typically necessary.
Ironman (Clinton Lake)	Event is outside city. No Police Department support is typically necessary.	Standby medical services provided and charged to organizers (total personnel cost including benefits, plus 10%)	No other support typically necessary.