

RETIREMENT SURPRISE FOR LPRD FITNESS INSTRUCTOR

Vicki Lysen started teaching fitness classes for Lawrence Parks and Recreation in May 1986. Over the past 29 years, Vicki has built a loyal community of participants drawn to her knowledge, teaching style and compassion. They gathered to thank Vicki at a retirement reception on Wednesday, May 13, at Holcom Park Recreation Center. Students, co-instructors and staff rushed the gym for Vicki's final aerobics class cool-down and stayed to exchange gifts and stories in appreciation for her many years of service.
