

SIGURDSON RECEIVES KRPA AWARD

Lawrence Parks and Recreation Department's Gayle Sigurdson, recreation programmer, was recently awarded with the Distinguished New Professional Award from the membership of the Kansas Recreation and Parks Association at its annual conference held in Manhattan, Kan., earlier this month. Gayle was recognized for her outstanding service and support of the parks and recreation profession at the local level, as well as her leadership in expanding and diversifying lifelong recreation programming in the Lawrence community.

Sigurdson was nominated by her supervisor, Annette Deghand, Special Populations Supervisor.
