How does this travel apply to your job? How will this add value to the City of Lawrence?
Greenbuild hosts the largest annual event for green building professionals worldwide where attendees learn and source solutions to improve resilience, sustainability, and quality of life in our buildings, cities, and communities. The Greenbuild education sessions qualify for GREEN BUSINESS CERTIFICATION INC. (GBCI) CE credits which are required for renewal of my LEED AP credential. I utilize my LEED AP credential during project management and policy development. I will network with my peers at the Expo to learn from their practices and policies to benefit the City. This opportunity aligns with the Strategic Plan commitments of Environmental Sustainability and Engaged & Empowered Teams.

Educational - In-Person / Hands On Zoll Software Training
How does this travel apply to your job? How will this add value to the City of Lawrence?
LDCFM is in the process of re-assessing it's current Ambulance Billing Software. After numerous presentations by different vendors, we believe we are going to go with Zoll; however, sales presentations can only show how much a system can do. We are meeting with partners who have been utilizing this software to get a more hands on feel and see the system live so that we can decide if this is the correct one for our department.
