Steve Ozark and Katherine Dinsdale, among the people involved with Fives Loaves House, 500 Missouri St., a home for homeless women, spoke at the February PNA meeting at the Public Library on February 16th. PNA members and Five Loaves House representatives spoke at length and it sounded that the organization has a good plan to make this work.

The home will house two formerly homeless women with mental illness on a permanent basis. This will not be a drop-in place. A big factor will be making sure support services are in place to make this project successful.
